tasting notes

A vibrant dark colour wine displaying sweet berries and plums on the nose. A fresh and fruity palate with a firm tannin structure. Best serve with pasta and meat dishes. Good potential for further bottle maturation for 3-4 years.

in the vineyard

Terrior:

Deep red soils from decomposed granite dominate the site selected for these wines.

Vineyard Type:

Bush vine and trellised vines.

Why No. 1? Because it is the first release in this new range showcasing some really interesting wines from our cellar. This Petit Verdot is a once-off, next year, who knows what the varietal choice of our Cellar Master, Abe Beukes, will be? But be sure, like this stunning Petit Verdot, showing the truly inky nature of the varietal, the follow-on wine, No. 2, will be as special and interesting.
